Danilo Díaz

Desarrollador Web Full-Stack

I am a junior web developer with skills in HTML, CSS, JavaScript, React.js, Node.js, MySQL, MongoDB and Express.js, with interest in user experience through modern and efficient web designs.

Thanks to my background I have done coding projects individually and in groups, which has allowed me to develop skills in SCRUM methodologies, teamwork and active listening.

I consider myself a friendly, reliable person with great adaptability to the different challenges that arise daily in the IT sector. I like to be constantly learning and I strive to keep myself updated on the latest technologies and market trends.

EXPERIENCE

Programate Academy Educamas, Programate-School, Development: Full-Stack

Role: Front-end

In this project we made the first phase of a platform for 11th grade students, where the objective is to facilitate enrollment in the PROGRAMATE-SCHOOL program, using a scrum methodology, an adaptable, dynamic, responsive, and scalable development, with a good user interface.

OQA, OQA online store, Development: Front-end

Developed a website with shopping cart integrated by WhatsApp, increasing online sales for the owner of the enterprise.
